2. GUIDANCE (CONTINUED)*2.4 Fairness Inclusion and Respect (FIR)

At VW UK we are fully committed to creating a diverse workforce and strive for an inclusive culture that nurtures people of all genders and backgrounds.

We strive to achieve meaningful, sustainable changes. Leadership and culture changes are led by the senior management team. Our Chief Executive Officer, Richard Offord and the VW UK Board actively sponsor our FIR strategy, ensuring momentum and to promote a true cultural shift throughout our organisation.

Ultimately, VW UK wants to be an employer of choice for high quality, talented people no matter their gender, sexuality, race, ethnicity, social background or religion, not only because this is the right thing to do in a multi-cultural society, but because it makes us a better business. We want to create a cohesive, high-performing team, by bringing together different opinions and perspectives and ensure that everyone feels valued and comfortable with being themselves.

2.5 Modern Slavery

We comply with the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015 and, in addition to our VolkerWessels UK Modern Slavery Policy, issue an annual compliance statement that can be found on our website. Our supply chain consists of around 5,000 suppliers. VW UK recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human associated practices.

We have robust systems and procedures in place to help ensure we operate an open, honest and ethical business. By implementing our policies and working with our suppliers, we aim to be the partner of choice for our customers and to operate ethically and responsibly.

Furthermore, we expect that businesses will ensure that working hours are not excessive and comply with national laws or benchmark industry standards whichever affords the greater protection.

We believe that paying a decent wage is good for the people who work for us and it makes good business sense too. We encourage our suppliers to pay fair market rates for all trades and disciplines whether site or office based.

2.7 Information Security

Suppliers should protect confidential information belonging to or vested in VW UK in accordance with all relevant laws, and act to prevent its misuse, theft, fraud, or improper disclosure.
